We are excited to announce that Representative Crystal Quade will be the speaker at our January meeting. Representative Quade, a Democrat representing part of Greene County (District 132), will be the next minority leader of Missouri House of Representatives. She was elected to her first term in office in November 2016.

Quade is the former director of chapter services at Care to Learn, a nonprofit organization that addresses the health, hunger and hygiene needs of economically disadvantaged children in several school districts across Missouri. She previously worked as a field representative for Community Blood Center of the Ozarks, as regional field director for Organizing for America and as a U.S. Senate constituent services representative. She was just elected as Co-chair of the House Democratic Caucus. While earning her Bachelor of Social Work degree at Missouri State University, Crystal was a legislative intern to four-term Representative of the 132nd, Charlie Norr.

We had record crowds at our meetings in 2018 — let's keep it going! See you in January!!
